FJG Online Legal Expert

Education Advice Line - expert information delivered over the telephone

FJG Online Legal Expert provides specialist face to face online legal advice across England and Wales on a wide range of educational issues including special educational needs provision and Tribunals, school admissions and exclusions, school transport, discrimination and much more. We provide quick advice regarding the law and practical steps. You can access FJG Online Legal Expert by telephone or through your own computer for a small fee.

What is a Phone an Expert session?

The Online Legal Expert session is a fixed price session of £75 including VAT for up to 30 minutes of focused time with a lawyer who is a specialist in education law. They will be able to provide you with expert advice on your problem. The Online Legal Expert session may be enough to help you resolve the issue. At the very least you will leave the session feeling more knowledgeable about the legal situation and what your options are.

How can I book a session?
